Respondent.)	Judge:

Attention: This is an official court order. If you disobey this order, the court may find you in contempt. You may also be arrested and prosecuted for the crime of making a wrongful lien and any other crime you may have committed in disobeying this order.

This injunction will be presumed valid unless and until superseded by a subsequent order.

The court has reviewed the Petitioner's Petition for Civil Wrongful Lien Injunction and has determined that there is reason to believe that a wrongful lien has been made, uttered, recorded, or filed.

Effective: May 2, 2005

Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 38-9a-202, the court therefore orders as follows:

1. The Respondent is enjoined from making, uttering, recording, or filing any further liens without specific permission from the court.

2. The lien referenced in the Petition, a copy of which is attached to this Order, is nullified.

3. Other:

Notice to the Respondent:

- a. You may request, in writing, a hearing to contest this order.
- b. You must file your request at the following courthouse:

- c. The hearing should be requested within 10 days from the date that the Order is served on you.
- d. If you fail to request a hearing within 10 days, this Order will automatically become a civil wrongful lien injunction which will not expire until 3 years after it is served.
- e. You may request a hearing after the 10 day period, but you will have the burden of challenging the injunction.
